We're not here to break the rules, but we break the conventions of what the phrase "appear for one" means. The bull's head is all I wanted in a pub, not only do we have our traditional pub to sink some pints or our only salted water of the afternoon will make it feel as if they had been transported directly in a hot spot of London par excellence. Along with our unique pub is our modern hotel, with 15 elegant rooms, an onsite parking lot, ideal for wedding parties. We really boast about the fact that we have the best draft beers and ales from Sunday in south-east London, and being close to Chislehurst Station, just 25 minutes in central London, is the perfect base to explore south of the River during the day and then enjoy a cozy stay of the nights. Above all, we are not only for the places, but we treat each guest as if they were local, because once you have sat for a pint in the Head you'll know what a good pub means.
